"To live by faith, to be known by love and to be a voice of hope"

29 June 2025

Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul

Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles' blood. Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labors, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith." – St Augustine

Ss Peter and Paul

Peter and Paul were two very different people who on at least one important issue in the early church were seriously at odds with one another. Peter wanted pagans who entered the church to submit to the Jewish Law, whereas Paul insisted that this was an unnecessary imposition on them.

Peter Vs Paul

Peter was a fisherman from Galilee, a predominately rural area.

Paul was from the university city of Tarsus, in the south of modern day Turkey.

Peter was an Aramaic speaking Jew;

Paul was a Greek speaking Jew.

Peter probably just had the very basic education of his time and place;

Paul was clearly a very well educated and literate person.

Peter, of course, knew Jesus personally and was with him throughout his public ministry.

Paul only ever encountered the risen Lord.

Peter's mission was primarily to preach the gospel to the Jews.

Paul's mission was to preach the gospel primarily to pagans.

Saints Peter and Paul are considered the foundational pillars of the Church.
Peter represents the stability of the Church and the office of the Vicar of Christ.
Paul represents the mission of evangelization that was entrusted to the Church by Jesus Himself. He was also the Church's first theologian, which is seen in his numerous letters that expound on the Gospels. Though unlikely, one tradition states that they were both martyred on June 29, in Rome, making them twin martyrs.
Their twin martyrdom reminds us that the Church must be both stable and mission-oriented. It must remain grounded in the ancient Truth, yet grow and flower with an ongoing understanding of the mysteries of faith.

As we honour these two pillars of the Church, recall the fact that, though they are great saints, they were also ordinary men called to extraordinary vocations. They responded and God used them in ways they could have never imagined. Ponder your own calling in light of theirs and resolve to lay your life down for the Church, joining yourself to these two men so that God can continue their holy mission through you.
